Surrounded by nature, Lake Shikotsu offers amazing adventures all year round!

Lake Shikotsu is located in Bifue-ku, the core of a network, home to the world's longest, highest, and best place to go skiing. Lake Shikotsu is the largest lake in Hokkaido, with a surface area of about 83 square kilometers and a depth of 1,116 meters. The lake is surrounded by a beautiful forest, and there are many opportunities to experience nature. It is surrounded by the Lake Shikotsu National Park, which offers a variety of activities such as skiing, snowboarding, and hiking.

The lake is also famous for its spectacular lake scenes. Along the southeast coast, the lake forms a long and narrow channel, and the northern coast is surrounded by mountains, making it a popular spot for hiking and mountain biking. In the southwest, Lake Shikotsu is the largest lake in Japan, and it is surrounded by beautiful forests and mountains. The lake is also home to a variety of fish, including salmon, trout, and carp, making it a popular spot for fishing.

Lake Shikotsu is also known for its unique underwater features. The lake is home to a variety of species, including fish, mollusks, and crustaceans. The lake is also home to a variety of plants, including algae, mosses, and lichens. The lake is also home to a variety of birds, including geese, ducks, and swans.

Lake Shikotsu is also known for its unique cultural features. The lake is home to a variety of festivals, including the Lake Shikotsu Winter Festival, the Lake Shikotsu Summer Festival, and the Lake Shikotsu Autumn Festival. The lake is also home to a variety of historical sites, including a World War II airfield and a World War II submarine base.

Overall, Lake Shikotsu is a beautiful and diverse location, offering a variety of activities for visitors to enjoy.